

The following template and photos are from Gordon Millar, Naseby.

Hand written on the reverse: "This one shows you our track, but no nearer. I couldn't get one to show the house. Bells corner." Jess. (n.d.)

Hand written on the reverse: "Ranfurly, the east side of the railway line." 1920's. By courtesy of G. Millar, Naseby.

Hand written on the reverse: "Old county depot far left (Old Mill) Ranfurly 1920's - the west side of the railway line. By courtesy of G. Millar, Naseby.

Hand written on the reverse: "Dear Jess, I thought perhaps you would like some of this photos, you know all the places on them and these were taken when we had that heavy fall of snow. You will recognise this one, the two hotels, Spencers and Donalds are on here. (n.d.)"

No information regarding this and the following photos, apart from the fact that they were included with the above items from G. Millar, Naseby.

