

Glyde April 10th 1875

J. Hyde Esq

Sir

I have the honor to inform you that - I will undertake the situation of inspector of roads and bridges (only as a temporary appointment - ent: for the sum of Four Pounds.

Ten Shillings per week. £4 " 10 " After that includes paying my own travelling expenses.

I am prepared to start away tomorrow morning on said duty

P. J.

I will consider it my duty, any spare hours that - I might have, to turn in with the day labour men, wherever I see it is most required, and assist in pushing through the work with the utmost despatch. I have the honor to be your obedient servant David McGovern